

A Whale of a Time!

August 9-13

Welcome to the 1995 Astoria Regatta

The next 100 years of Regatta is off to a strong start. We have a river front site at the West Mooring Basin. We are on the road promoting the Astoria Regatta and the North Coast area as a great place to visit.

The new orca whale float unveiled at the Puyallup Valley Daffodil Festival on April 21. We presented the Regatta story at the Crab and Seafood Festival.

We visit 14 festivals in Oregon, Washington, B.C. and Idaho right up to our festival date. And two festivals following our event.

The Astoria Regatta Association, Astoria Hosting Association and Anchor Club were declared official ambassadors for the city of Astoria by Mayor Van Dusen. The members of these organizations and the 1995 Astoria Regatta Court promote our area as a great place to visit anytime and a great festival to attend in August.

We need your support as we reach out to provide economic benefits from these many visits. The return on your support dollars will multiply this year and in the years to come as more people throughout the Northwest see our road show, meet the court and Regatta representatives and hear about our North Coast area. Responding to our patron and sponsor appeal now helps our program get a strong start and maximizes our publicity effort.

Please send your contributions to:

PO Box 24, Astoria, OR 97103.

Contact me if you want to get involved or have suggestions and questions.

See you at a parade, wave and shout your support when you see the "Spouting Whale," and buy your support button early.

Have a Whale of a Time,

Tour features richness of architectural heritage

The rich architectural heritage of Astoria can be but tasted in small bites. The 1995 historic homes tour combines five interesting houses with their "intentional gardens," inviting guests to wander both inside and outside.

Sponsored by Clatsop County Historical Society, (503) 325-2203, the self-guided tour will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 12 and 13, from 12 noon until 4 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the Heritage Center Museum, 16th and Exchange, only on those days beginning at 11 a.m. for $7.50. Children 15 and under accompanied by adults are free.

Houses on the tour include:

Brenham Van Dusen House, 1681 Franklin. Built circa 1885, the house is now owned by Karen Nelson, who shares it with tourists as the Columbia River Inn Bed & Breakfast. Each bedroom is named for an Oregon coast lighthouse. The garden features a gazebo and a "stairway to the stars." Born in Astoria in 1856, Brenham was Astoria's first real estate and insurance agent. Grandson Willis Van Dusen is Astoria's current mayor.

Chris Schmidt House, 1510 Franklin, was built in 1910 for the widely-known fish cannery owner. In 1937, it was purchased by Albert Engebretson, OSU extension service agent who developed grass seeds. The present owners, Samantha Smith and Michael Williams, have no problem with grass in their colorful garden. The house is known as "the pink house on Franklin."

Carleton B. Allen House, 1656 Irving. Built in 1906, the house was designed by Astoria's famous architect, John E. Wicks. Present owners Randy and Debra Gunderson Bowe enjoy their oriental antiques as well as their new Japanese garden in the front yard.

George and Maude Fulton House, 707 Eighth Street, was built in 1883. Now known as Inn-Charmed Bed and Breakfast, the house was on the 1993 Oregon Trail tour. Owners

Dick and Dixie Swart appreciate their spacious garden for making the house seem to be in a rural setting. The Fulton family, related to the pioneer Hobsons, have provided Astoria with several generations of doctors and lawyers.

John Eldridge House, 721 Exchange, is an attractive 1906 Dutch Colonial Revival style just behind Flavel House Museum. Owners Larry and Elaine Lumbra's garden proves what hard work can do to a hillside covered with blackberries. The house is bound to please eclectic antique lovers. Little is known of machinist Eldridge who moved away in 1909.

Coast Guard Cutter 'Active' to be on hand for 1995 Astoria Regatta

The Coast Guard Cutter "Active" will be the flag ship of the 1995 Astoria Regatta. The "Active" is a 210-foot medium endurance cutter with a home port of Port Angeles, Washington.

"The Coast Guard is always grateful for the warm hospitality that the citizens of Astoria extend to our crews," said Richard D. Herr, U.S. Coast Guard Vice Admiral. "This important event solidifies our relationship with the Astoria Community."

Parade Grand Marshal

Cindy Howe will be serving as the Grand Marshal of this year's Astoria Regatta Grand Land Parade.

An employee of the Astoria Fire Department, Howe also serves as film location co-liaison for the City of Astoria.

"My job as liaison is to make sure that the film companies have everything they need," she said. "I solve problems for the film companies."

Howe has worked on four films which were filmed in Astoria, including "Kindergarten Cop," "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles III," "Free Willy," and "Free Willy II."

Parade Marshal

The 1995 Parade Marshal is Howe's partner in the world of movies, Mike Ramsdell, who serves as film location co-liaison for the City of Astoria.

Born and raised in Astoria, Ramsdell has worked for the City of Astoria since 1962. He expressed his gratitude to his co-workers, who pick up the slack when he is called away from his regular duties to work with film producers shooting in Astoria.
